*Dear Margie, I am so very sorry for your loss of your beautiful daughter, Julie. You and I worked together at Pogue's Department Store many years ago. You were pregnant with Julie when I was pregnant with our Katie. We both left around the same time and I remember coming to your home and we got our baby girls together. She was such a beautiful little baby! I lost touch with you after that, but have thought of you periodically over the years. Please accept my deepest condolences over your profound loss!

“ My heartfelt sympathy to Margie, Steve and family on their loss. I went to high school with Margie and then to Indiana University where Margie and Steve first met and fell in love. I remember their days of college courtship well. Though we've long since lost touch, I was truly saddened to read of their daughter Julie's passing. I wish the Bergmans, Adlers and Isaacs only the best in dealing with this tragedy.
