“ Greg and I have been truly blessed to be the next door neighbors of Karen since we moved to Mason two years ago. Karen was the kind of neighbor everyone wishes they had. She shared flower bulbs and rides to the airport and always had a moment to stop and chat when we met in our adjoining driveways. Her laugh was unique and contagious. Already, there is a bit of an ache when we pass her home on our way out...or back in from our daily walks.

We wish her family, whom we feel privileged to have met in the past few days, all the best as they learn to navigate life without Karen. Surely, she left a precious legacy.
