

Karen Lynn Roth

September 2, 1944 - July 2, 2022

Karen Lynn Roth (Huggins), age 77 of Cincinnati, Ohio passed away July 2, 2022 at Bethesda North Hospital. She was born September 2, 1944 in Finneytown, Ohio the daughter of Daniel Cyrus Huggins and Ruth Huggins (Garrison).

Karen graduated from the University of Cincinnati with a bachelor of English and Biology. After graduation she taught middle school English after she married and started her own family. She took a break from teaching to devote herself to her daughters and helped instill in them family traditions and a sense of adventure and curiosity of the world. She later returned to her career as a teacher until she retired to enjoy being a grandma.

Karen enjoyed hunting for seashells at Honeymoon Island State Park, and knew the names of every water bird that lived in Florida. She also avidly enjoyed genealogy work and was able to put together an extensive and detailed family tree. She was an active part of her grandchildren's lives and loved spending time taking them on field trips and helping them explore their creativity.

In addition to her parents, Karen is predeceased by her younger brother Kirk Huggins. Her surviving family includes: her daughter Lynn Brannon and her children Victoria, Daniel, Delaney and Teagan, her daughter Michelle Santhanam, her husband Vijay and their daughter Sahana, and her daughter Alesha Roth and her daughter Aydin.

A service of remembrance will be held 1 PM Friday, July 8, 2022 at Heritage Acres Memorial Sanctuary in Cincinnati, Ohio.
