

Kenneth H Mandell

August 20, 1938 - April 6, 2016

MANDELL, Kenneth H. age 77, passed away April 6, 2016 in Florida, beloved father of Jeffrey (Tiia T.) Mandell and the late Julie Dee Spaw, brother of Gloria Mandell, dear grandfather of Amber LeAnn Cottings, loving son of the late Benjamin and Rebecca Mandell, totally devoted cousin and nephew of the Dombar family of Cincinnati and Colker family of Huntington, W.V. His son Jeffrey said "he was a loving father, colorful guy with a big personality, and legendary salesman who could sell ice to an Eskimo, as well as a big believer in helping others and giving people a second chance." Kenneth joined Benny Mandell Produce shortly after being founded by his father Benny in 1954. Through his efforts, the business grew rapidly and became an industry leader, nicknamed "The Potato King." In addition to being active in the produce business shortly before his passing, he was a gentlemen farmer who dabbled in horse breeding, raising cows and agriculture. Graveside services Sunday, April 10 at 1:00PM at Adath Israel Cemetery in Price Hill, 1661 Sunset Ave., Cinti. 45238. Memorial contributions to American Diabetes Association would be appreciated.

Tribute Wall

TF

“ We share in your sorrow at the passing of a true Mensch and friend to our family. We shall never forget the kindness he showed to our son, Steven, who was Jeff's good friend, while the boys were growing up in Cincinnati. We enjoyed our visits with Jeff and Ken after we moved to Florida. Steven has wonderful memories of being with Jeff and Kenneth after he moved to Vegas. Our thoughts are with you at this time.

The Slavney family - April 12, 2016 at 08:55 AM