

Lillian Vendig-Bandyk

July 9, 1946 - March 16, 2017

Lillian Vendig-Bandyk (b. July 9, 1946) passed away March 16, 2017 in Phoenix, AZ surrounded by loved ones. She is survived by her husband, Edward Bandyk; daughters, Rabbi Elizabeth Bahar (Uzi) and Stephanie Bandyk (Olly), as well as her three grandchildren, Aiden, David and Daniel Bahar. Graveside services Monday, March 20, 11:00 A.M. at New Hope Cemetery, 5375 Sidney Road, Cincinnati, Ohio 45238. Shiva will be observed Monday evening at Adath Israel Congregation, 3201 East Galbraith Road, Cincinnati, Ohio 45236, Tuesday-Friday at Temple B'nai Sholom in Huntsville, Alabama. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions to Temple B'nai Sholom, 103 Lincoln Street S.E., Huntsville, Alabama 35801 or Temple Kol Ami, 15030 N. 64th Street, Scottsdale, Arizona 85254 would be appreciated.

Tribute Wall

J"

“ Lillian was a true loving wife, mom, grandma, and giving loving friend! She also was a brilliant soul.
May her memories comfort all of us whose lives she touched and was in, and may she be blessed through all eternity.

Joyce Barmak "JB" - March 23, 2017 at 09:48 AM

DK

“ Lillian was an inspiration to all who came to know her. She was fearless in her convictions, positive in her faith and steadfast in her friendships.

Diane Cecily and Chuck Kinder - March 23, 2017 at 09:48 AM

NB

“ Lillian and I were neighbors and friends during our high school years. I am so sorry for your loss. May her memory be for a blessing.

Nada Weine Bernat - March 21, 2017 at 10:18 AM