“ The Hartman family would like to express our sincerest condolences on the passing of Linda. We have the fondest memories of Linda, Allen, and Tracey as our neighbors and friends from Paramus. Linda was so warm, kind, and beautiful. How lucky we were to have known her and the rest of the Syatt clan. My mother was very upset to hear of Linda's passing. She loved her very much. Mom is 91 years old and still in our childhood home.

Tracey, please send me you home address so I can keep in touch. I have been sending Christmas cards to your parents address in Florida for years. I spoke with Linda a few years ago. She called me because she loved getting our cards and seeing our boys grow up from year to year. We had such a nice conversation. I loved her, Tracey. My thoughts and prayers are with you all at this difficult time. Love and hugs. Elise

“ Allen, Tracey, Kira & Families

We are so sorry for your loss. We didn't know Linda a very long time but are so thankful that she became part of our family. We have told her wonderful story many times. We are grateful for the island visits and that we were able to visit in Florida five years ago. We were so looking forward to seeing her again real soon. So sorry we were not able to get there on time. Looking forward to seeing the rest of you. Love Diane, Harry, Allan, Danny, Craig, Kathi & families
