“ As I continue to process the passing of my Aunt Lois, I find peace and joy in what I've witnessed these past few days and experienced my entire life. The importance of family and love and laughter, even in the sad times, are what my mother Molly and her sister, Lois, wanted for all of us. Seeing my aunt's exceptional children and grandchildren pulling together would have made her so happy; so proud. Aunt Lois, we will miss and love you always and your memory is forever in our hearts and souls

“ Aunt Lois was one of the most important people in my life. She and my mom, her sister Molly, created so much laughter, made every day better, and brought our families so close. I wanted every important person in my life to meet my Aunt Lois ... and they did. Her opinion always mattered. She made Monica feel so welcome. We will cherish every moment we had with Aunt Lois and be grateful we got to share in her amazing life. We love the Goodman family. Monica and Neal
