Dr. Manny Wallace Comisar

Manny Wallace Comisar's life journey peacefully concluded on January 11, 2024 at the age of 94. Born on January 10, 1930 in Cincinnati, Ohio he was the beloved son of the late Simon and Fay Rita (Kuhr) Comisar.

Despite humble beginnings and early hardships, Manny's determination shined bright. He married his high school sweetheart Lois Jane Stoll and dedicated himself not only to their relationship but also to his optometry practice. He was a graduate of the Illinois College of Optometry and found his passion and life's work in optometry which he practiced until he was 82 years of age.

Together, Manny and Lois ventured into entrepreneurship and started a thriving optometry practice in Loveland, Ohio. Their tireless dedication fueled its expansion, creating a network of offices in Loveland, Kenwood/Blue Ash, Morrow, and Mount Orab. Manny's fervor for optometry was infectious, his commitment unwavering. A true luminary in his field, he endeavored to enhance people's vision while evolving with the industry. His pursuit of additional certifications and extensive service to optometric organizations epitomized his dedication. Their venture wasn't just a practice, it was the foundation of a lasting legacy. He was a lifelong member of the American Optometric Association and also a founding member of Diversified Ophthalmics, Inc.

His compassion extended far beyond the walls of his offices and his words of kindness left a lasting impact on all who crossed his path. Manny, an unselfish, loyal, and generous man of unwavering faith, found solace within Temple Sholom and later Adath Israel. His magnetic presence marked by an infectious laugh and sharp wit brought immense joy to all. He was a life-long jokester who told jokes until the end. His generosity, humor, and passion for reading, crossword puzzles, sports, the arts, and travel endeared him to many. Beyond his professional sphere, Manny was a dedicated father of 4 and grandfather of 9. He was the bedrock of his family instilling values of hard work, diligence, integrity, and always prioritized his family. He was a devoted caregiver to his elderly mother-in-law Fae Stoll after his wife's passing. His legacy thrives through his children and grandchildren, each carving successful paths across diverse fields, a testament to the values he imparted. Manny and Lois celebrated their 50th anniversary embraced by their friends and loved ones before her passing in 2002—a loss deeply felt by Manny and his family.

He is survived by his children Karen (John) Prescott, Robin (Randall) Maceyko, Scott (Melissa) Comisar, and Marc (Kristin) Comisar, and his grandchildren Emily, Ryan, Ashley, Brandon, Jake, Avery, Joshua, Leah and Maya and his brother Steve (Becky) Comisar, and numerous nieces and nephews.

“ Dear family of Manny. My husband had the privilege of knowing Manny for many years and often spoke very highly of him as a friend and as a professional. Whatever Dr. Manny said was the law and he was always right in his treatment of the eyes. I remember he always told jokes and humorous stories to make you smile. I knew Manny through my husband's friendship with him over the years. I remember him being the kindest person, always doing good deeds for those who needed help. May his memory be a blessing to all those who knew and loved him. He will dearly be missed. With sympathy to his family. Barb Mandell
