“ My sister and I knew Marc for many years, and whenever we would run into him, he was also so happy to see us...and vice versa. Interestingly, during numerous election seasons, I would often see him at the Blue Ash Administration Building passing out the GOP literature, and I would be at the same spot - volunteering to pass out the DEM literature. We often laughed about that and enjoyed our time volunteering there. May he rest in piece.

“ Everyone has expressed the same thoughts I have of Marc. He was always so friendly - from Ravenwood times and throughout the years since. Marc knew everyone's name and was always so positive and friendly. I will miss him.

“ We loved when Marc would stop by at our office. All the staff loved his visits and I think he enjoyed coming in to see us. He would stay quite a while because so many people wanted to chat with him. We know he loved Music and he would talk about the different bands coming to the event in Blue Ash area.

“ I am so incredibly sad to read that Marc passed. I grew up in Ravenwood and Marc has been apart of my life since I was 10yrs old. My mom and your mom have known eachother forever. Sad that they are both gone as well. My mom was Aunt Josie to Marc. I used to see Marc all the time at CV...we would just tell people we were cousins. My mom was Josie Brower and I'm Pam. May his memory always be a blessing, I know it will be to me and my family.

No matter where I met him - it seemed like weekly at Kroger, the j he would always ask me how I was doing, how my wife and family were doing and remembering people we had spent time together with on Tikvah many years ago.. I will miss meeting with up with him .may his name be for a blessing .

Marc and his parents lived down the street from us on Boardwalk. He also had smile on his face and warm and genuine person. He will surely be missed.

“ We lived on Boardwalk down the street from Marc when I grew up. Marc was always riding his bike around the neighborhood and was always drumming up conversation. Very kind and neighborly and he will be missed.

“ Marc was a light in the darkest sky, he was positivity when it wasn't even a thing, he was love, he was kind and he was loyal. He had more “aunts” and “uncles” than anyone I know because everyone was family to him. His passion was his music and his past...he loved both equally. He was a part of my life for 50 years and I will miss his smiles, talk of the old days and his hugs. I will remember him in the songs I hear and in the twinkling of the stars. For me...his memory will always be a blessing. I am so very sorry for your loss...

“ My Uncle Marc was a very special person and Uncle to me. Growing up I loved spending time with him and listening to his favorite oldies music with him. I will miss him very much. Leslie Handler-Frakey

“ Marc and my late father Steve Adams shared a wonderful friendship after meeting at the old JCC health club over their shared love of oldies music and Marc knew absolutely every single oldies musical artist and every song and the history of these musicians from the 50's and 60's. Marc was an extremely kind and wonderful man, from seeing him at Wise Temple to the JCC to our JCC softball games when Steve Epstein would bring him, to working various blue ash concerts and assisting with his beloved Blue Ash Police department, Marc was so well liked and beloved by so many in the community. May his lasting memory always be for sweet blessings for his family. Blessed to have known such a goot n shama. Most definitely will be missed by so many

“ I didn't know Marc very well- but it didn't seem that way. Every time I'd see Mark at the JCC, he would come over say hi and ask how I was doing, and my family. And he genuinely wanted to know. What a wonderful man.
