“ Aunt Rocky lived such a rich life, sharing her enthusiasm and her good humor with our family—my father Bill Weiser who was her brother-in-law, my mother Beverly who loved her sister-in-law dearly, my sister Judith and me, who visited with her and Uncle Norm often in the summers. Her love extended to my wife and to our children. Our daughter recalled her visit with Rocky and Butz during college spring break with a friend, recounting how much fun they had. Our family is saddened to hear of her passing. Irwin Weiser

“ Rocky was one of the most kind, positive, friendly women I've ever known. She's one of the first people we met when we moved to Cincinnati and we always looked forward to seeing her at NHS gatherings and other special occasions. She is an inspiration and will be missed.
