August 22, 1929 - March 13, 2025

Marion Klebanow, 95, of Cincinnati, OH, passed away Thursday, March 13, 2025. She was born August 22, 1929, to the late Sol and Pearl (nee Freeman) Krumbein.

Marion was blessed with two loving marriages—35 years with the late Herbert Klebanow and later 10 years with the late Lenny Rosenbaum. Loving mother to Robin (Henry) Stein, Sherry (Larry) Weil, and Susan (Ron) Zimmerman. Adoring Grammie to Lauren Stein, Evan (Alyssa) Stein, Megan (Matt Gurman) Weil, Hayley (Chris Chu) Weil, and Hayden Zimmerman. Doting Great-Grammie to Ayla and Matan Stein, and Asher and Lilli Gurman. Sister-in-law to the late Marcia and Bennett Korchmar, and also survived by many cousins, other family, and close friends.

Marion grew up in Price Hill and graduated from the University of Cincinnati. She was a beloved elementary school teacher, who loved reading to her children and great-grandchildren. Marion was an avid reader, bridge player, and tennis enthusiast. Above all, Marion's greatest love was her family. Gatherings were made special by her remarkable cooking and baking, where love was always the secret ingredient.

“ I was fortunate to know Marion all these years when she visited her family in Chicago. She was invited to our home to celebrate many holidays. She always brightened our table with her optimistic outlook and really enjoyed being a member of our family. L'chaim Marion you define the word.
