“ *Marion was a joy to be around! We shared many a joke (via email), lunch time visits and swapped stories while taking OLLI classes together. The planet is now short one lovely person who sweetened the world with her presence. My heart grieves, but oh what a life she lived!

“ Dear Levy Family,

The Queen City has lost a diamond from its crown. And my family has lost a true friend and a Grand Lady.

There are so many words to describe Marion. Champion Bridge player, Marion never held a hand she didn't see a winner in. A special lady golfer that pushed younger ladies that tried to keep up with her. No way they could beat Marion. A neighbor that was always there for her neighbors. Always asking about you, your spouse and of course your children. Oh how Marion loved children and they loved her. A smile and a way about her that you knew she cared.

Marion was tested during her life. Marion may have been a little lady but Marion always stood tall and proud. Especially of her children, their wives and their families. What a special lady. Marion will be missed and not replaced. Marion was filled with love.

May her memory be for a blessing.

We miss her very much,

Ricki, Stuart, Naomi and Pearl Hodesh

Marion was a remarkable woman and I was lucky to know her when I was volunteer coordinator for Legacies. She was a regular volunteer on Wednesday afternoons and we all loved her tales of wearing out the men on the golf course. We kept in touch after I left Legacies and she continued to volunteer until the pandemic hit. She was modest about her many achievements but immensely proud of her children, in-laws and grandchildren. She suffered deep losses but maintained a positive outlook that made her a delight to be with. She will be missed, deeply..
