Victoria, Jacob, and family and friends. I was able to better appreciate the richness of Mark's life and the passion he had for all the people in his life, his passion for literature, music, sports, and his dedication professionally to equality and justice and his love of teaching. I knew his intellect well enough, but it was wonderful to hear from those who knew him so well. Jacob, your words were golden. It is with great sorrow and sympathy that I have, but now understand Mark lives very much on in those he touched.

All my respects, Michael Keys.

“My deepest condolences to Victoria, Jacob, Eileen, and Ruth on this unimaginable loss. I will always remember Mark's kindness, intelligence, and understated dry wit that always took me by surprise. He was well-loved and will be greatly missed by all who knew him.

“ Dear Victoria and Jacob,

I had the great honor of working with Mark for 10 years through the early days and inception of the the Kentucky Innocence Project. Together, we forged this new NKU program with the DPA.. He was a great person- always gentle in his nature even as we overcame many legal and investigative obstacles together that we faced, as we investigated cases of factual innocence. He never waivered from the mission and his devotion to our clients, the law, and to his students.

I wish I could have been there today but heard of his passing very late and could not attend. However, I will remember Mark always and all the special stories we shared together.

*I hope that in the days ahead that all of you are surrounded by loving family and friends.
Peace be with all of you.*
