“ Dearest Roz, this is Joel Collins. Lisa & I still receive the Israelite, albeit typically 2 weeks late. We were deeply saddened to read about Marty's passing. We more shocked to read about Jason's passing last year.

For reasons that no longer matter and were likely inconsequential years ago, the Faust family and I became estranged. To my great joy, Stanley and I reacquainted several years prior to his passing and we would meet for lunch and to discuss the 'old' days. Stanley let me know what happened to Artie. I'm sincerely regret that Marty and I were unable to regain the friendship we once shared.

This is much more than belongs on a tribute wall, but at this time, it's my only way to reach out to you and your family. I'm 64, retired and Lisa and I are living in Arizona.

Roz, I'd certainly like to speak with your or any family member. No matter what, I'm still family. I can be reached at: 513-659-5199.

Lisa and I express our sincere condolences to the Faust family for both Jason and Marty's passing. We pray for your peace and comfort.
