“ I also did not know of Marvins passing until today. He is one of my unforgettable people. I worked with him during Benchcraft & Albany Industry days. He was such a jolly, caring man who loved his family. He will be missed by many!

“ So sad to learn of Marvin's passing while attempting to text him a Happy Birthday message this morning. I met Marvin when he purchased his first Mercedes from me in 09 and we became friends. We both had a passion for NFL football and if the Saints or Bengals made it to the SB in 2013 (I believe) he was going to fly us to the game. We talked of a Bengals / Saints SB! Many before me have already noted what a wonderful spirit Marvin had. What a tremendous loss for all who knew him. Sincerely, Zach

“ I am so sorry to hear of your loss. I met Marvin 20 years ago during a High Point Furniture Market. What an amazing sprit, always full of life! Marvin was always available for council, first class person. Will be missed, but I'm certain he's living it up big on the other side!

“Marvin was an amazing person with a bigger than life personality and sense of humor. I feel so lucky that he was part of our optometric family and our label for him as our "favorite patient" was truly sincere. His thoughtfulness towards us was extraordinary as evidenced by the number of times that he would bring us a deli sandwich or a Servatii Pastry treat, even when he did not have an appointment. He would just say that he wanted us to have a great day. He touched our lives in the very best way and as we share in your sadness, we will always keep him in our fondest memories. Wishing your family comfort and peace during this difficult time. -- Dr Michael Hodovanic and Linda

“I am so sorry to hear of Marvin's passing. I knew him through my father, Aaron Ruhalter. My Dad loved him and counted him as one of his very closest friends. They were such a spectacular pair together. They were so alike on many levels, and the banter they shared was priceless. When my Dad got sick and required surgery to try and preserve his life, I was out there to help see him through. I had no idea how to shoulder such a responsibility, and Marvin was there with me and for me. With kindness and strength, he helped to guide me and counsel me (and made sure I ate) during a very challenging time. And I won't ever forget him. I'm thinking of his family and loved ones and wishing them peace and comfort in these sad times. My sincere condolences to you all. Eric Ruhalter
