“ Max was my next-door neighbor for 15 years or so. His kindness was off the charts. He helped me with anything to do with house maintenance. My wife was in poor health, and he aided her when I traveled on business. He was my dog’s best friend. We went to concerts and Reds games together. I often leaned on him for counsel. Next to my Dad, he was the man I admired most. I wanted to be more like him.
