

Mellia "Mimi" Panigel Ninio

November 5, 1926 - January 27, 2019

Mimi "Mellia" Ninio, passed away January 27, 2019, born in Cairo Egypt, treasured daughter of the late Jacques and Rachel Panigel, devoted wife of the late Maurice Ninio for 55 years, adoring mother of Dr. Jocelyne Eberstein (Matthew Avruch) of Los Angeles, CA, Victor Guy Ninio and Monica (Michael) LaFever, cherished grandmother of Nicholas Eberstein of Los Angeles, CA, Andrew LaFever, Brandon LaFever (Courtney Marciano) and Jeremy Ninio of Los Angeles, CA, preceded in death by her 4 sisters and one brother. She was a longstanding member of Adath Israel Synagogue and Sisterhood. She was also a member of the Ohav Shalom and Northern Hills Synagogue Sisterhoods. She enjoyed her service as a nurse at the Jewish Hospital for 15 years. She later volunteered as a docent at the Hebrew Union College Skirball Museum as well as many other organizations. She enjoyed extensive travels and spending time with her family. Services Weil Funeral Home, 8350 Cornell Road, Monday, January 28, 12:30 P.M. Visitation begins at 11:30 A.M. Shiva will be observed at the Ninio residence, 22030 Maxim Way, Symmes Twsp., Ohio 45249, Monday and Tuesday with Minyans at 7:00 P.M.. Memorial contributions to Adath Israel Synagogue or Hebrew Union College are appreciated.