“ Citron (as I know him) was a great man. While I first met him as a colleague, he eventually became my boss and a mentor. I considered him a friend, and when I had my daughter he became “uncle Mikey”. I still remember him holding her as a baby when I would bring her into the office and he would yell over to me “put them on hold!” So he could help me close a big deal. I even remember him bringing back mickey mouse ears for my Nadia when he came back from Florida. He shared so many stories and baseball metaphors (I never understood), but I knew he cared about me and that’s all that mattered. He was a great salesman, a family man and I am so glad I got to share so many laughs with him. I hope you’re resting peacefully Citron. Love always, Krystal and family.

“ "Put em hold". Mike Citron was like the Tiger on the movie Life of Pi for me. He challenged me in great ways and watched me grow into a mature man over the 15 years plus we worked together. Our talks and his energy, will never be forgotten. Rest in peace my friend.

“ One of my most memorable quotes from Mike was during a work day. He made one of our employees repeat "I am a Passionate Man!" It reminded me of the type of person he is. He definitely left a footprint in most of our hearts. He will be missed but not forgotten!

“ I became a part of the Swapalease.com family in June of 2008 and met Mike then. He loved the Joseph family and loved his position at Swapalease.com and was knowledgeable on different subjects. Mike worked hard and always expected the same from others whom he worked with. RIP Mike.

I was shocked when I got the news of Michael's passing. We worked together at Swapalease for a year as and a half before I retired and moved to Florida. He was a kind man and always ready to help anyone. We worked together for 4 to 5 months before we found out we both went to Woodward H.S. together. I can't remember if Mike was 1 or 2 years behind me. Talk about a small world.

R.I.P. till we meet again my friend.
