“ I just learned of Mike's passing. I work at Mason High School where he was one of my tenured subs. He always came in with a positive attitude and was so nice to talk to and get to know. I will miss him. My condolences to his family and friends.

“ Michael was a good (next door) neighbor back in the day in Paddock Hills. I also remember him hanging out at "the mailbox" with everyone. Rest in peace.

“ Michael was a fine person. I met him at Woodward HS, where we graduated in the same class. I lost track of him for a number of years, but re-met him at Ohr Chadash where he was a congregant. Many times he would lead the introductory prayers at Shevat Achim (his recent shul) on Shabbat.

Mike had the brightest eyes I'd ever seen-as though he couldn't wait to see what was around the next corner. I know he had trouble with his sight, but, my-how he could see. That's how I'll remember Mike-always looking, always anxious to satisfy his curiosity.

May Mike, a humble, observant Jew, forever rest in peace.

May he always rest in peace.
