“ It is difficult for me to tell you how very sad I am. Cousin Murray was a Patriarch ,a true head of a family. His dignity and strength, his moral sense of purpose and his generosity will be part of my memories, forever. I think he understood my difficulty in connecting after our daughter ,Michelle, passed away. He was at the funeral and walked one foot next to the gravesite and never took his eyes away. I know they are together now, and somehow that lessens my pain. Rest in peace, cousin Murray. You are loved.

“ I'm very saddened on the loss of Murray. He and my father Jimmy Chaliff were like brothers. I have such fond memories of Murray. He loved his family, his grandkids, and great grandkids. He was quite a man. They don't make them like that anymore.

Love,
Jeff Chaliff

“ David and I watched Uncle Murray's service and send you great love. So sorry not to be there with you all in person. It's just a shock to think of a world without Uncle Murray. However it works on the otherside, I like the idea of Dolly and Bert, dear aunt Florence and Uncle Murray united again. xoxo Linda and David in California

“ It has been a distinct honor to have Murray in our lives the last several years. He was a source of inspiration and made us better by his presence.

We liked to say that if you looked up the definition of mensch in the dictionary, you would see Murray's picture.

We join the rest of the community in knowing how much he will be missed

“ I am personally saddened to hear of the passing of “Uncle Murray.” I was able to see him in the past year at the J when he came for his PT. He always greeted me with that wonderful smile of his and the special twinkle in his eye. As a best friend of his niece, Nancy, I remember always feeling welcome at Aunt Florence’s & Uncle Murray’s Home and family gatherings. May he Rest In Peace and May his memory be forever a blessing. My best to the family,
