“ Dear Jennifer & Charles,
It is with deep sadness that I learned of Myfanwy's passing. Those Holiday dinners at Anne & Rick's were highlighted by Myfanwy's & Robert's joyfulness, wit, boundless energy and great intelligence. Just a single line from "God Save the Queen" brings back such special, happy memories of them both. You have my deepest sympathies.
Beth Goldstein p.s. Jennifer: thank you for sharing those marvelous old photos....

“ To the family -

Myffy was a gift to all who knew her. Her life made such a difference to so many of us. Her grace, her intelligence, her thoughtfulness, her integrity made all who knew her better. Your parents were an example to all of us. You have my deepest sympathy. They will remain with all of us forever.

“ Dear Jennifer and all the family of Myffy -

Sending love from Dublin to you all on the passing of your much loved Mum, Grandmother and Great Grandmother ...

We haven't met, Jennifer, but I am Pam (Harris), the daughter of Phyllis and Adrian (Eddy) Cowan, who was the son of Lib (nee Nurock). I was friendly with Penny Wiseman when we were young, so knew Aviva and family well. And Myf's name was always a source of wonder to me as a child; I always meant to ask Uncle Max who had chosen it as it was quite a tongue-twister and extremely exotic!

I did - happily - meet Myffy in London, a good few years ago now, along with Caroline and Robert at a family reunion organised I recall by Alma and Maurice. So very glad I did, as not too long afterwards, your second darling sister tragically died. My memories of them are so warm, and although we never met again, will keep them close.

All my deepest heartfelt sympathy to you all at this most particular of times, in which I am joined by David, my husband. We both wish you 'Long Life'.
