

Nancy Haas MILLER

May 29, 2012

Nancy Haas Miller, 80, passed away on May 29 in West Palm Beach, Florida after a brief illness. Formerly of Cincinnati, she was a graduate of Walnut Hills High School and Wheaton College in Norton, Mass. She has been a resident of Palm Beach Gardens for the past 25 years. While in Cincinnati, Nancy taught kindergarten in the Cincinnati Public Schools and later ran special events for Multiple Sclerosis, Muscular Dystrophy, NCCJ and other philanthropic organizations. She frequently modeled for charity affairs and once was chosen by the designer Halston to model his clothes. She was a past president of Home Gardeners, as her mother had been, and she and her husband were members of the Isaac M. Wise Temple and Losantiville Country Club. While in Florida, she volunteered at the Art Museum and at Jupiter Hospital, counseling patients' families. She leaves her husband of 58 years, Sam Miller, and two sons, Harry Charles Miller and Sam Adrian Miller, and grandchildren Brandon Albert and Jared Ryan Miller. She also leaves a sister, Jane Haas Friedman (Fred) and nieces Karen Friedman Cooper (Peter), Dr. Jennifer Ringel (Bob), nephew Tedd Haas Friedman (Sherri), and great nephews Jake and Seth Friedman and Charlie and Jack Ringel. Services will be at Weil Funeral Home, 8350 Cornell Rd. on Tuesday, June 5 at 1:00PM, with visitation at 12:15. Friends may call on the family at the home of Jane and Fred Friedman Tuesday 7:00-9:00PM. Contributions would be appreciated to the Council on Child Abuse (4155 Crossgate Drive, Cincinnati, OH 45242), Hospice of Palm Beach (5300 East Avenue, West Palm Beach FL 33407) or the charity of one's choice.
