

Nathan Wolfson

August 30, 2024

Nathan Wolfson, 98, passed away on Friday, August 30, 2024, beloved husband of the late Madeline (Fox) Wolfson; devoted father of Sandy Wolfson (the late Nigel Glossop), Lois Wolfson (Dan Taylor) and Karen Wolfson; grandfather of Amy Glossop (George Pavey) and Seth Glossop; and great grandfather of Max and Matilda Pavey. He was predeceased by his parents Fred and Esther (Tabakow) Wolfson, brothers David (Mickey) and Phil (Gloria) Wolfson, and in-laws Estelle and Eugene Klein and Arlene and Mark Widerschein. He also leaves behind three generations of loving nieces and nephews; cousins; and his close friends.

He had a lifelong passion for sports, and in his younger years was known for his baseball pitching ability in the Cincinnati Jewish Community Center softball league. He and Madeline later moved to Las Vegas, NV. A funeral service was held at the Southern Nevada Veterans Memorial Cemetery in Boulder City, NV. Memorial contributions may be made to the charity of one's choice.
