

Ned Lee Liebowitz

February 6, 1959 - August 9, 2021

Ned Liebowitz z'l

February 9, 1959 - August 9, 2021

Like so many of you, we are beyond heartbroken that Ned has passed.

He is survived by Nancy, his beloved wife of 31 years, his children Abby (Craig Douglass) and Matt, and his sisters Tina (Scott Nelson) and Denni (Susan Freundlich). Ned was loving uncle to Josh, Ashley, Jenna (Ben), Jared (Shanti), Ian, Ryan, Chloe, Jorden, and Shelby and beloved great uncle to Liam, Porter, and Hudson. Ned touched the lives of many close friends who loved him and whom he fiercely loved back, including Annie his first and long time furry companion.

Ned was an all around lovable guy, caring, and kind with a wonderful sense of humor. He was an expert on-call sandwich maker and passionate lover of music, nature, food, family, film, and adventure.

He will forever be missed.

“ I have recently found out and am shocked and numb to hear that Ned had passed away. I had moved to Florida several years ago, and had lost contact with Ned and his family. I have so many wonderful and lasting memories of the good times with Ned, and his family.

What a Great guy. I am honored to have had the pleasure to know Ned. My thoughts and prayers go out to Nancy, his children, and family.

“ I worked with Ned eight years at Furniture Fair. I will always remember him fondly as a supportive friend who genuinely helped me be a better person and professional. We had many discussions together about many issues. Whether we agreed or not and most of the time we did, he was a great listener and was gracious in allowing others to have their own points of view. I will miss him.

“While I didn't see Ned/Nancy too much in recent years, I remember them both fondly from my single days in Cincinnati. Two great people...Ned shared my love of music...always had a smile..was my go to person at Swallows for many years. My thoughts/prayers go out to Nancy and family. Ned left a lasting legacy in everyone he touched.”

“My deepest sympathies and condolences to Ned's family. Having grown up on the same street as Ned, I have lots of great memories of our times together - biking, sledding, pee wee football and baseball, and just hanging out together after school in his home on Clearbrook Dr. While our paths diverged as we got older, I have always thought of Ned as dear friend who had a positive influence on my life. You are missed.”

My deepest condolences to Nancy and the kids. Ned and I go back to about 8 years old at JCC Basketball. Then the Walnut Hills years, and after College keeping in touch raising our families in Cincy, and having many mutual friends.

This has all happened way too quickly. I saw Ned less than 3 months ago, to buy a new Mattress. It was on that Saturday Ned told me he had just gotten diagnosed on that Wednesday. It felt like a punch in the gut. I was able to see him a month later- but I am just numb. G-d bless the Liebowitz Family.

“ Ned and I joined lives about 34 years ago at the Summit Road JCC. That is where I got to know him. The JCC was our "Cheers". My future wife (Diane) and Ned's future bride (yes, that was Nancy) joined in our wonderfully fun adventure. Racquetball, tennis, ping pong, and much conversation was enjoyed by all. Not to mention enjoying the pool and softball. Later we saw less of each other, but never losing track of one another. It was always such a joy when we would get together. Genuine conversation and hugs easily given.

Love always
