

Norman Nevins

October 10, 1938 - August 27, 2018

Nevins, Norman (1938-2018)

Norman Nevins, age 79, of Loveland, passed away Monday August 27, 2018. Born on October 10, 1938 in New Bedford, MA to the late Rubin and Gertrude Nevins. Norm graduated from Southeastern Massachusetts University and retired from Franklin Industries, in Loveland, after a forty five year career as a chemist. Norm was a third degree Mason. Norm is survived by Paula, his loving wife of 57 years and children Tammy (Bo) Foeller, of Columbus, Scott (Sue) Nevins, of Dayton, and Anne (Mike) Weikert, of Wilmington; grandchildren Josh (fiancée Natalie Morrison) Adler, of Cincinnati, Stephanie(Henry) Zelaya, of Margate, FL; and great-grandson Noah Zelaya. In addition, Norm is survived by his sister Elaine Nevins, of New Bedford, MA. Norm was a member of Northern Hills Synagogue and his many interests included gardening, fishing, nutrition, the environment and most of all, his family. Services Weil Funeral Home, 8350 Cornell Rd., Wednesday, August 29, 11:00 A.M. Visitation will be held 10:15-10:45 A.M. A Masonic and Scottish Rite service will be held at 10:45 A.M. Shiva will be observed at the residence of Paula Nevins, 173 Decatur Lane, Loveland, OH 45140 Wednesday, Thursday, and Sunday 6:00-8:00 P.M. with Minyan at 6:45 P.M. Donations may be made to Northern Hills Synagogue or the charity of your choice, in memory of Norm. The family wishes to thank the staff at Cedar Village for their compassionate care.

Tribute Wall

BR

“ I will miss you Norm. You were a good friend, and always gave me information to improve my well being. You had just wished me happy birthday last week and now you're gone. May Hashem bless and guard your soul. B"H

Bracha Radin - August 31, 2018 at 04:42 PM

ML

“ We are so honored to have known such an amazing man. I enjoyed spending time with him he was a true friend, and will be greatly missed.

Matthew and Jamie Leyendecker - August 30, 2018 at 03:25 PM