PS

“ I remember their house (only a few doors away from my grandparents on Lawn Ave.) So many wonderful memories. She was without a doubt one of the warmest, sweetest moms of our friends. They were without a doubt the best memories I have of my childhood through good and bad times. If there were sad events that occurred (such as the passing of my father, I knew that I would find comfort in the warmth of their family love. My sister (who passed away 2 years ago) would have agreed with me that just being at their house was a feeling of love and affection which led to eventual happiness down the road. She expressed the feeling of gratitude and appreciation that wisdom and life experience that only comes when a person has an open heart.

My husband Ron send our love (with sadness and gratitude) to your entire family.

We look forward to hearing from you soon (hopefully during much happier times).

All of our Love,
