“ I loved her very much.

“ I met Pearl in 2004 at Cedar Village, though we believe our paths may have first crossed back when I worked at OJH in 1990. Either way, Pearl was truly one of a kind.

My memories of her span so many of her FOCV roles—from her days in the deli, to leading meetings, volunteering at the Cedar Village Golf Classic, and even traveling to Boston and beyond. Pearl and HER sister Freda gave more than anyone I knew—true examples of what a mitzvah looks like in action.

When I saw Pearl this past March, it felt like no time had passed. She was, and always will be, Cedar Village.

I miss her deeply and will always be grateful for her kindness, generosity, and love. A true woman of valor.
