“ When I shared the news about becoming a grandmother for the first time, Peggy brought a booster seat for me the next time we saw each other. Her grandchildren didn't need it anymore and I'm still using it for our little ones. She was a very thoughtful and giving friend.

“ We met Peggy's father, Alvin in a liquor store in Tupper Lake some twenty or more years ago, and because he was wearing tennis clothes, we, as fellow tennis players, joined Alvin, Betty Jerry and Peggy on the courts. Later we hiked and socialized extensively with Peggy, who was often Joe's tennis partner. We're glad that the Adirondacks flowed in Peggy's blood, as it did in ours for sixty years. She will be long and fondly remembered by us.

We were fortunate to live next door to Peggy since 2004. We shared many laughs and stories along the way. It was always nice to see how much enjoyment she received while on her daily walks with her dogs when she was able. We enjoyed sharing many flowers from our gardens through the years, which will be reminders of her love. We will forever miss her kind and loving personality.
