“ Dearest Phyllis, I was writing a FB post yesterday afternoon about how we met in late 70's. As I was ending my lengthy post, suddenly it disappeared. That never happened before! I tried to rewrite the post but for some reason it felt like the hand of G-d removed this post. My dear friend, you are missed! But I'll always have such fond memories of you, especially our AlliBaba luncheon where we shared our lives past, present, and future work. Love you!

“ So sorry for your loss. Just like your parents, Phyllis was a very caring and giving person. I remember very fondly when we were kids and our families would get together for picnics and going to the twin drive-in. May her memory be for a blessing.

“ Phyllis-The world will not be as bright and inspiring place without you. You challenged me, encouraged me, and supported me. I will always be grateful for both our personal and professional relationship. May God comfort all who mourn for you and may your memory always and forever be for a blessing.

Your friend, Rob
