

Qiu Lan Wu

December 16, 1929 - January 26, 2026

Qiu Lan Wu, age 96, passed away peacefully, leaving behind a legacy of love, devotion, and kindness.

She was born in 1929 in Taishan, Guangdong, China. Known for her intelligence and gentle nature, she touched the lives of all who had the privilege of knowing her. She met and married her beloved husband, Tan, Xipei and together they raised six children, building a home grounded in hard work, care, and family values.

Qiu Lan Wu dedicated her life to her family. She worked tirelessly and was always ready to lend a helping hand to those in need. In 1994, she immigrated to the United States, where she lived with her youngest child and family, cherishing the time she spent in America.

She found joy in life's simple pleasures: walking and exploring the outdoors, gardening each summer, trying new foods, cooking and making treats for loved ones, singing, watching movies, crocheting and sewing, and traveling—especially when visiting her children in China and Canada.

She was blessed to witness four generations of her family, including her 11 grandchildren and 8 great-grandchildren. She was the sunshine of our family, a constant source of warmth and love.
