“ To the entire Boymel Family, Judy and I were so saddened to hear of Mrs. Boymel's passing. Having lost both of our parents, we can fully appreciate the emotional impact and sense of loss. Although Judy and I only met and knew Rachel a few times , specifically at Jennifer and Greg's wedding, she seemed like a gentle but strong soul. After just listening to the audio of the funeral, it is clear to me that Rachel was the the perfect daughter, wife, mother, and grandmother. I hope that your wonderful memories of Rachel continue to comfort all of you in the coming days. I, personally, hope that Rachel's "spirit of life burning within" finds it's way into the soul of my first future grandchild---Jennifer and Greg's first child . In closing, please accept our heartfelt condolences at this sad time.
Sincerely, Gary Lazaroff

“ Dear Family of Rachel Boymel
We are in Florida so we could not be at the funeral or we would have deinitely been there. She was a very special caring person and we feel blessed to have known her during her prime. One thing that I remember so vividly is when my mother and Sam were both at Jewish hospital and Rachel brought home made soup for Sam and the same or my Mom. Thereafter whatever she brought for her beloved Sam she brought the same for Mom. She was that kind of person.
May her memory be for a blessing
