I met Rick at the weekly lunch group when we moved to Cincinnati about 3 1/2 years ago. I really did not know him well but the few times he did come to lunch I enjoyed our conversations and the gentle side of his personality. Our sincere sympathy to the family! May his memories always be for a blessing... Gary and Ellen Weiss

“ Dear Family.

I was saddened to hear of Rick's illness and death. ALS is one mean disease and shows no mercy to the patient. Rick and I taught together at UC and worked together on clinical cases for over 25 years. I worked for Trihealth and sent him patients for evaluation and/or treatment. We had lunch together on occasion and I found him to be a consummate professional and true friend. I offer my sincere prayers and condolence in your loss.

“ Suzy, David and Elissa, I was sad to read about the passing of Rick. I just finished watching the entire beautiful service and all of the deeply meaningful eulogies. He was a lucky man and you all were lucky to have him as well. I thought of our dance competition days and the fun we all had together. You are in my prayers for peace and comfort in the days ahead. Love, Cindy and Hal Maskery

“ Beannacht
by John O’Donohue

*On the day when the weight deadens on your shoulders
and you stumble,
May the clay dance to balance you.*

*And when your eyes freeze behind the grey window
And the ghost of loss gets into you,
May a flock of colours,
Indigo, red, green and azure blue,
Come to awaken in you a meadow of delight.*

*When the canvas frays in the currach of thought
And a stain of ocean blackens beneath you,
May there come across the waters a path of yellow moonlight
To bring you safely home.*

*May the nourishment of the earth be yours,
May the clarity of light be yours,
May the fluency of the ocean be yours,
May the protection of the ancestors be yours.*

*And so may a slow wind work these words
Of love around you,
An invisible cloak to mind your life.*

I knew Rick as a professional colleague and personally when he helped our family. He was a dedicated, kind man. I wish for Susie and his entire family surrounding love and peace.

“ Rick was a trusted and always friendly colleague. I appreciated what he contributed to the opportunities for treatment for teens and others with substance abuse. His newsletter was informative and I always looked forward to reading it.

“ I was a patient of Richard off and on for more than 30 years, with my last session the day before he departed. He was a wonderful counselor, but much more than that ... he was a great friend. He helped so many people. My most sincere condolences to his Wife Susie & all of his family, friends & patients. I will miss Richard dearly.
