It has been so nice having my cousin, Dick, back in Cincinnati the past few months. Although I think he missed the Florida warmth, he braved some pretty cold temperatures to join us for dinner on a few occasions. To his family, our very sincere sympathy. You have all been through so much in the past several months. May his memory be a blessing to all of you.

*David and I called Dick and Marsha dear friends for at least 20 years. We never missed seeing each other whenever they came back to town or when we visited them in Florida. We were just planning a visit with Dick and then came this shock. We are so sorry for this devastating loss for his family and friends who loved them both.

“ *Dick and Marsha lived across the street when I moved into Eagleton Estates in 2015 and they were lovely neighbors to my wife Joy and me. Both were always kind and friendly. “ Dick and Marsha moved to Florida shortly after we did. Dick and Mickey used to play golf together and we all used to go out for dinner or celebrate holidays together. It seems like just yesterday Dick and his daughter were over for dinner right before he moved back to Cincinnati. So sorry to hear of his passing. We will miss him and hearing about his beloved cats. Our hearts go out to the family.

“ Dick was a warm, interested, gentle man with whom we shared an easy friendship. Having met through Marsha, the four of us easily conversed about
Our Cincinnati connections, golf, books, children, trips, vocations, and everything in between. He was the most loving, caring husband throughout all of Marsha's travails and ultimate passing. As difficult as his health issues became, he never lost his smile and positivity. It was our privilege to have shared part of his life and we will miss him. May he rest in peace.

“ Having my older cousin, Dick, back in our family town was great. He always had a smile on his face and added so much to our family discussions at Skyline. More important, he helped me reconnect with my younger cousin, Michelle. His memory will forever be a blessing to all of us and all who knew him. May peace find it's way quickly to his family.

I had the great privilege of working with Dick and Marsha for many years at the Comey & Shepherd Montgomery office. Both were two of the warmest and kindest people I've ever known. Dick was always the consummate gentleman - always quick to smile and laugh and share a kind and thoughtful word that would lift you up if you needed it -- and there certainly were those times! The world was a better place because of Dick and I know he will be sadly missed by all who knew him. Much love to Dick's family and all the loved ones he leaves behind.
