So sad to say today I lost my wing man who gained his angel wings and what a blessing he was . I'm one lucky girl who had the privilege to work side by side with the best boss ever!!! He was not only my employer, but a mentor, friend and a father figure. He pushed me to further my career and was one of my biggest cheerleaders. I considered him an extension to my family. He will be tremendously missed.

“ Barbara, even though it's been many years since we lived in Cincy, we still get the Israelite and I was so sad to see in the issue we got today, that Ron had died. I wanted to write to you but the address given in the Weil's obit did not have your complete zip code but rather 4524.

My memories of Ron and his family are strong. I still know the house where his parents lived here in Columbus.

I knew his sister Edie from the time she was here.

And I knew his parents. His dad ate at the same table as my mom did at Creekside.

And years earlier, his mom got me to work on the memorial booklets at our former shul here in Columbus. (I still work on the memorial booklets at our current shul which is a break-away from Agudas Achim.)

I tried to make a contribution to the fund you set up in Cincy but I failed. Will try to get our local son, Shaul, (the redhead) to help me do it.

I watched the funeral service today and it was very moving. I feel sad that we didn't keep in touch with you except a bit on facebook.

“ Dr. Solomon was not only my dentist but my neighbor when I was growing up. He once came to my house late(ish) at night to pull one of my teeth out. He was a very special man, a gentle doctor, and a kind soul. He certainly will be missed.

“ Helene and I want to send our deepest condolences to the family. Dr. Solomon was a tremendous mench! A wonderful Doctor who always had a smile when greeting you. An upright and honest man who loved helping people!! Even though we moved to the Holy Land many years ago, I still would tell my grandchildren how luck I was to have Dr. Solomon as a dentist and more importantly as a friend. May his memory be a blessing to all. May the Lord comfort the family among the mourners of Zion an Jerusalem

“ Ron and Barb were one of the first couples we met when we moved to Cincinnati in 1991. Our friendship flourished the 20 years we lived there and continued when we moved back home to St. Louis, even though we didn't have the opportunity to see each other or talk very often. It is a friendship that we continue to value and we appreciated the opportunity to attend Ron's funeral virtually. Ron was a man of high moral and ethical character and will be greatly missed. Our heartfelt condolences go to Barb and their beautiful family. May he rest in peace and his memory be for a blessing.

Barb, Scott, Stephanie, and Aaron-

You have our love and prayers. Ron/your dad can best be described as a gentle giant - loving but strong in every way. He was the BEST with a smile that welcomed you into his heart. We will both miss those dinners after the Playhouse where a great deal was shared.

Thank you for sharing Ron with our family!
