

Roslyn (Eppstein) Brant

January 30, 1916

Roslyn Eppstein Brant had a few quotes she lived by (her favorite: “you can never be too rich or too thin”) but none of them are enough to do her justice now that she is gone. Roslyn passed away August 19, 2018. The scope of Roslyn’s life was wide in years — 102 — and in experience. She traipsed around the world in leopard print, coordinating pinks, and a conviction to never compromise on her fun. Roz is survived by her 3 children, Suzi, Joe and Bobby; her 8 grandchildren; and her 18 great-grandchildren. She will live on in their many stories about her, many of which are not fit to print. However, one thing all her descendants agree on: ALWAYS order the same flavor that Roz orders when you go for Graeter’s ice cream or be prepared to see an enormous (and they all emphasize enormous) bite of your ice cream disappear. Private graveside services will be held, Sunday, September 16, followed by an open house celebration of her life at Joe Brant’s home 3:00 P.M. to 6:00 P.M. Memorial contributions to the Sidney C. Brant Memorial Endowment at Jewish Federation of Cincinnati would be appreciated.
