“ Sincere condolences from our family to yours. Your husband and father was loving, kind, caring, and full of positive energy.

We are sorry for your loss. Sergey was a great father, friend and lived a marvelous life for giving the best to his children, family and country which he loved. I remember bringing him to this country and watching him how much he care and love to do the best and he did.

He will always be a winner, a champion who succeeded. His love for his wife and children's success and achievement will be always remembered with us.

Sergey will be greatly missed. We understand your grief and we are here in your heart. With our deepest sympathy on the loss of beloved Sergey to you Milla, to your children, and to all of our family. I pray that God will comfort you, watch and guide over you like never before.

*Our deepest condolences,
Love, Alex, Mercedes, Adriel and Sally Bergmann*
