

Shoshana LEVINE

January 30, 2013

Our mother, Shoshana Desa Wolk LeVine, was born October 12, 1926, and died January 30, 2013. Born and raised in Cincinnati, Ohio, where she spent 69 of her 86 years, she was only child of Rabbi Samuel Joseph Belmont Wolk (z"l) and Dena Gertrude Morgenstern Weiss (z"l). She graduated from Walnut Hills High School in 1944 and the University of Cincinnati in 1948. She married our father, Leslie Isadore Lee LeVine (z"l) in 1949 and they remained married until his death in 1996. She raised two sons before she returned to school and work. She earned both a master's degree and a doctorate from U.C., and she was a skilled psychologist and therapist for over 20 years. She was also a family oriented, caring person. Over the course of her life, she spent many years as the primary caregiver for other family members who were ill, including our father's two older sisters, her own aunt, her own mother and our father. After our father died, our mother began to show signs of dementia and ultimately this disease robbed her of who she was. In 2000, we moved her to Mountain View, California, so that we could better provide care for her locally. She is survived by her two sons, Elchanan (formerly known as Laurence Craig 'Larry' LeVine) and David Howard LeVine, her daughter-in-law, Lisa Beth Mark, and her two granddaughters, Sasha Ilise Mark 'Shira' LeVine, and Leah Rachel Mark LeVine. Arrangements are by Sinai Memorial Chapel in San Francisco. Services Weil Funeral Home, 8350 Cornell Rd., Monday, Feb. 4, 11:00 A.M. Memorial contributions to the National Council of Jewish Women, the Alzheimer's Association or the charity of one's choice would be appreciated.
