“ A good man and a great soul has passed on. My first cousin Stanley was an individual of strong conviction, deep faith and possessed a passionate intensity that was quite extraordinary. He was always so warm to me and had such interesting things to say.....Plus I'm remembering meeting Stan with his wife Ann for the first time back in the 1960's and thinking what a beautiful couple they were...So rest in peace my dear cousin. You're on another journey now - one we will all join you in soon enough.....

“ Dear Ann and family,
He was a very special man. We feel fortunate that you made the move to Cincinnati and we got to know the 2 of you. We had so many milestones the same and we felt very close to you. I always admired the way Stan pushed himself to do things. Even when he was not well he managed to be the Levy if there was not another person available. He was a true inspiration to both of us. Together you raised a beautiful family and that is a wonderful legacy to leave behind. He will always be fondly remembered by us. May hi memory be for a blessing.
