“ I remember meeting him at the tennis courts walking around the courts . He would talk and was quite friendly. I became good friends with him . He did electrical work for me in my condo . He told me abt his life ! And his collections of handcuffs and that it was in the world Guinness book . He also collects other things . He will be missed by me ! I was saddened to hear the news of his passing . I like to wish his family my condolences! - ---Shelley
