

Suzanne Robinson

April 6, 1934 - September 16, 2018

SUE ROBINSON (1934-2018)

Suzanne Rose Rappaport Robinson died at home in Peoria, Ariz., on Sept. 16, 2018. She was 84.

Born April 6, 1934, in Toledo Hospital, she grew up in nearby Bowling Green, Ohio, daughter of Henry and Pearl Rappaport. It was a time and place in which, as a child, she could pick up the phone; tell the operator, “I want to talk to my Daddy”; and be connected to his store. Decades later, she would FaceTime with her children, nieces and nephews via her iPad.

Sue graduated from Bowling Green High School in 1952 and Northwestern University in 1956, later earning a master’s degree in education from the University of Toledo. It was at Northwestern that she met her husband, dental student Eric R. Robinson. During her career, she was a kindergarten teacher, a mom and a tutor for children with learning disabilities.

Sue spent most of her adult life in the Toledo area and tutored at Ottawa Hills High School before moving with her husband to Cincinnati and, a decade later, Surprise, Ariz. An art lover, she was a docent at the Cincinnati Art Museum, Cincinnati’s Taft Museum and the West Valley Art Museum in Surprise.

Survivors include her daughter, Helaine K. “Holly” Robinson of Cincinnati; son, Stuart J. Robinson of Glendale, Ariz.; and sister-in-law, Mariellen Miller of Phoenix.

Memorials may be made to Hospice of the Valley (hov.org) in Phoenix or Northern Hills Synagogue (nhs-cba.org) in Cincinnati.
