

Sylvia G Goldman

January 5, 1917 - March 11, 2015

GOLDMAN, Sylvia G. age 98, passed away March 11, 2015, beloved wife of the late Rabbi Albert Goldman, devoted mother of Bob Goldman, loving grandmother of Jody and Dana Goldman and the late Aaron Goldman. Family graveside services, Friday, March 13. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions to Plum Street Temple Preservation Fund or Hospice of Cincinnati would be appreciated.

Tribute Wall

BN

“ What a gracious and compassionate lady. Our family was touched by Sylvia and Rabbi upon many occasions. My husband grew up in the Wise Temple family with Rabbi performing his Bar Mitzvah. We traveled to Washington, Pa for my conversion. Your mom made a beautiful lunch that I still remember...and Rabbi and Sylvia came to Marion to marry us. We did see them a few times to share pictures of our boys and accomplishments made along the way. Such fond memories. We send our love .

Bob and Debbie Nemo - April 06, 2015 at 09:15 AM

MS

“ It was our good fortune to grow up with Rabbi Albert and Sylvia Goldman. They made a tremendous impact on our entire generation. How proud we were to call her our friend and mentor. Our thoughts and prayers are with you at this sad time. Know that you brought her joy and pride. Our deepest sympathy. Becuse she lived, the world is truly a better place.

Marlene and Albert Shmalo - March 12, 2015 at 01:57 PM