

Sylvia SCHREIBER

July 1, 2012

SCHREIBER, Sylvia Z. age 91, died July 1, 2012. Sylvia was born July 10, 1920 in Dayton, Ohio. Her family moved to Cincinnati when she was five and grew up here. Sylvia graduated in 1941 from the University of Cincinnati College Of Engineering with a B.S. in business. She began working for the State of Ohio helping to staff factories and businesses that were gearing up for WWII. Her supervisor at the employment bureau vetoed her application to enlist in the WAC because of the outstanding job she was doing at the bureau. Twenty-five years after receiving her B.S., Sylvia received a Masters in Education from Miami University. She spent twenty years teaching middle and high school in Cincinnati. Sylvia was predeceased by her husband Ben Schreiber, her mother Esther Groban Zukerman Litwack, and her devoted sister Betty Zukerman Schear. She is survived by her dear sister, Leba Rae Litwack, and children, Edward (Betsy) of Houston, Beverly (John) Jacoby of New York City, and Steven (Jill) Schreiber of Cincinnati, along with 9 grandchildren and 4 great-grandchildren. A private family graveside service will be held Thursday, July 5 at Adath Israel Cemetery. Memorial contributions to Hospice of Cincinnati would be appreciated.
