

Sylvie Falk

March 2, 1928 - May 24, 2025

Sylvie Levy Falk died on May 24, 2025 at Evergreen Retirement Community in Cincinnati, Ohio. She was born in Strasbourg, France on March 2, 1928. After surviving World War II under a Christian alias, she came to the United States to study at the University of Cincinnati. Soon after her arrival, she met her future husband John Falk. She earned a degree in French literature while raising 3 children.

Sylvie was a nature lover, tremendous cook, and avid reader. She enjoyed the arts, travel, volunteering at the Friends of the Public Library, and taking OLLI classes.

We will miss her irreverent humor, storytelling, nurturing spirit, and wisdom.

She was predeceased by her husband John, and daughter, Vivi. She is survived by her son Ron(Julie), daughter Jackie, grandchildren Noah(Maoni) and Ellie(Ben), and great grandchild, Lewis.

Per her request, there will be no service. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in her memory to the Nature Conservancy, Freestore Foodbank, or Planned Parenthood.

“ Vivian Falk, Sylvie's daughter, was a good friend from high school. When she died decades ago from cancer, Sylvia and John made me feel better, in the midst of their grief. I will remember Sylvia as strong, smart, and kind. May her memory be a blessing
