

Teresa Harrod

February 13, 1954 - December 20, 2024

CINCINNATI – Harrod, Teresa, nee Dave, 70, passed away on December 20, 2024 after a long illness. She was a devoted daughter of the late Bernard L. and Roselyn Dave, beloved wife of Robert C. “Chip” Harrod, loving mother to Amy (Scott) Rubenstein, Joanna (James) Amendola, and Allison (Nick) Neumeister, dear sister to Lenny (Amy) Dave of Lake Worth, Florida, and proud grandmother of Lilly, Phoebe, Maggie, Will, Bobby, Lila, Henry and Eleanor, and caring aunt to Dena and Avi Dave, Elliot (Rachel) Harrod and Emma (Zachary) Bliss, and loving sister-in-law to Matt and Ellen Harrod and Becky and Calvin Warren.

Terri graduated from Miami University and enjoyed a long career as an artist, excelling in calligraphy, art framing, and furniture painting. Upon graduation from college, she began her career as an instructor at the former Antonelli Institute of Fine Art & Photography and later enjoyed a long tenure with Frame Concepts.

Terri had a number of interests, but her true passion was her family. She was uniformly regarded and appreciated as the glue of the Harrod family, who kept everyone connected. She was known for her gift-giving, which was always very personal and reflected her care and attention to her loved ones. Terri was a faithful fan of the athletic endeavors of her children and grandchildren.

“ I am so deeply sad to receive this news. What a fine lady we have lost. She was forever interested in what YOU were doing, never drawing attention to herself. She has the credit of half of all the great achievements of her beloved husband, Chip. I send my sincere condolences to him and to all of their daughters, sons in law, and grandchildren.
