“ I would like to send my condolences to Ted's family and friends. Ted and I worked together at the Treasury Inspector General's office, Ted in Cincinnati and myself in Atlanta. Ted was tenacious individual, working long hours to perfect computer programs with one of our National Office programmers. I respected Ted and his dedication to our audits of IRS operations.

“ Debbie, I am so proud to have had Ted as my Brother-in-Law and my friend. His love for you and his commitment to you any your family has been and continues to be the model for mine.

My time looking at coins, fossils, stamps, and talking politics with Ted on the patio are among my best memories.

He could always make you laugh and I cannot recall an insult ever uttered.

Thanks to both of you.
