“ I remember how kind and attentive Tom was to his wife, Linda, back in the early 2000's by bringing her coffee early in the mornings before she taught us ladies our dance classes at The Studio for Dance. I also remember his great sense of humor. He and Linda made a great couple.

Linda I just found out about your loss of your husband Tom. We go way back to our first appointments. I loved getting to know you with dance tap lessons and with that learning about Tom.. All of us teachers! May his passing be for a blessing. Love to you and your family. Nancy Gibberman

“ I remember in 1977, coach mentioning after we defeated West High AT WEST HIGH (who eventually won the State Title and we defeated TWICE) about me "making small wind tornadoes" from striking out TWICE (we all laughed about that)... But, my third at bat, I was disciplined enough not to swing at bad pitches and eventually got walked... I stole 2nd base, I stole 3rd base, and I eventually stole home with the WINNING RUN from a wild pitch...
