“ Aunt Grace you will be missed,you were always so kind to us when we were children you bought all of school clothes and not because we needed them but because you were just that way.always kind and loving.the last time I talked to you was when dad passed away we talked for hours I'll never forget you and will always love and miss you. You were truly one of the hardest workers I've ever seen you were wonderful inside and out I love you forever
